

PARENT'S RIGHT TO KNOW

- Parents must be informed annually of the school improvement status of their child's school.
- Parents may request information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's classroom teachers including the degrees held, certifications held, and whether the teacher is certified in the areas they are teaching.
- Parents may request to know if their child is receiving instruction by a paraprofessional and, if so, their qualifications.
- Parents must be provided information concerning the level of achievement of their child in each of the state academic assessments.
- Parents must be notified if their child has been assigned, or has been taught for 4 or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.
- Parents must be notified of their right to be involved in the planning and implementation of the parent involvement program in their school. Parents must be provided this information in a language the parents can understand, to the extent practicable.
